Favorite shows in Full HD

Get the EECG 24 H05T2S2 LED TV for your living room and watch your favorite shows in top HD Ready quality. Whether you like Hollywood movies or prefer sports broadcasts, you can enjoy everything down to the smallest detail on the 24-inch screen. You can also count on high-quality sound - it will be provided by stereo speakers with an output of 2×3 W.

To allow you to place your new TV exactly where you need it at home, the ECG 24 H05T2S2 has a stable stand and can also be hung on the wall (via the VESA 100 × 100 standard).

Connect other devices

A soundbar that will provide your new TV with a class-leading sound. A game console that will allow you to enjoy action shooters, racing simulators and sports games on the big screen. Or perhaps a laptop that will allow you to stream content from your favorite streaming services to your TV. These are just a handful of devices that you can easily connect to your ECG TV. Just use the HDMI interface.
