A stylish toaster

Do you believe that a hearty breakfast is the basis of a successful day? If so, the ECG ST 2766 Vintage Olive is the right kitchen helper for you. You can use it to prepare irresistibly crispy toasts for yourself and your loved ones every morning. Whether you prefer them salty or sweet, you won't go wrong with this toaster. You get a tool for preparing delicious delicacies, as well as a tasteful kitchen decoration – we have given this small appliance a olive finish made of high-quality stainless steel, emphasising its attractive appearance with stylish stainless steel elements.

The toaster has two compartments that are wide enough to cook both thinner and thicker toasts. Its maintenance is very easy thanks to the removable crumb drawer.

Pastry to your taste

With the ECG designer toaster, you can prepare breakfast, snack or dinner exactly to your liking every day. You can easily adjust the degree of browning using 7 heating intensity levels. Toasting is possible thanks to a special integrated grid. To top it all off, the toaster also offers practical defrosting and warming functions. The automatic centring technology ensures even browning in every case.

Once your pastry is ready, the toaster automatically ejects it and switches itself off.

Always safe operation

The ECG ST 2766 Vintage Olive toaster is safe to use at all times. To prevent unnecessary burns, we have provided it with thermally insulated walls and to keep it stable during operation, we have also equipped it with non-slip feet.

The supply cord of our toaster measures a sufficient 77 cm and there is a special space for storing it.
