Irresistible toasts, whenever you feel like it

The ECG ST 2750 toaster from the Stripe design series will impress you at first sight. The combination of robust plastic with chrome elements not only looks great, but also ensures high durability and reliability. This kitchen helper offers the possibility of preparing two slices of toast at the same time, which you will appreciate especially during quick morning preparations. The blue backlighting of the buttons also gives this small kitchen appliance a modern look and at the same time provides you with visual feedback about the currently selected function. Thanks to the power input of 780–930 W, this toaster can prepare breakfast quickly and efficiently.

Control the degree of browning

With the ECG ST 2750 Stripe toaster, you can easily adjust the toasting intensity to your personal preferences. You have a choice of 7 selectable levels, so you can find yours, whether you like your toast lightly toasted or prefer a crispier version. The practical defrosting and reheating functions make it easier to prepare frozen foods or refresh yesterday's bread in no time. The automatic switch-off function then ensures that the slices of bread are automatically ejected from the toaster after toasting. In addition, the device naturally also has an immediate stop button, so you can easily interrupt the toasting process manually at any time.

Great flexibility and easy maintenance

For your maximum comfort, the ECG ST 2750 Stripe toaster is equipped with a removable toasting grid, which allows you to easily heat or toast even larger pieces of bread, such as buns, croissants or rolls. Of course, there is also a crumb drawer, which ensures quick and easy cleaning of the device. Thanks to the non-slip feet, the toaster stands firmly in place during operation. And when you are not using it, it will not get in your way unnecessarily, thanks to the special space for storing the power cord.
