Bet on effective cleaning

You will clean your home with the ECG VP BS6120 Animal floor vacuum cleaner really effectively. It is a reliable appliance, which works with modern technology of cyclone vacuuming. It therefore uses centrifugal force to separate the dirt, which acts on the dust and other dirt through the rotating air inside the vacuum cleaner. All dirt is then centrifuged into the collection container and the result is perfect cleanliness without an additional clutter.

Premium accessories

You can easily clean the living room, children's room and bedroom thanks to the high-power level of the vacuum cleaner which reaches values up to 800 W. The practical telescopic tube and also the premium brush for hard floors and carpets Wessel Werk will make vacuuming a breeze. If you belong among pet lovers and own one, then you will certainly appreciate the practical turbo PET brush. It can easily deal with dog and cat hair.

The noise level of the vacuum cleaner is a maximum of 80 decibels.

Since this vacuum cleaner is one of the bagless appliances, you don't have to buy more and more bags and then watch if they are full – dust and other dirt accumulates in a 2.5 litre container, which you can simply empty at any time.

HEPA filter as a guarantee of cleanliness

The ECG VP BS6120 Animal bagless vacuum cleaner uses a modern HEPA 10 filter (High Efficiency Particulate Arrestance), which ensures a truly perfect cleanliness at home. This is a special type of air filter that can remove particles with a size of 300 nanometers from the air, with an efficiency of at least 99.97%. Vacuuming will ensure a beautiful clean atmosphere at home, which is suitable even for allergy sufferers.
